This is your choice, and we look forward to uniting you with the strength of our membership across North America. Together we can accomplish anything.

Take the first step...

The first step leading to union representation is to complete, date and sign an "authorization card." The "A" card advises the proper government agency that you want union representation. It does not automatically make you an IAM member. The agency will determine if there is enough interest to move the process forward. If you have recently signed an IAM authorization card, please pass this invitation and "A" card to a co-worker.
